PART A NAME AND OBJECTS

Name

- A1 The name of the Society shall be Cottington Close Residents' Management Organisation Limited ("the Society"). The management committee shall be called "the Board".

Objects

- A2 The society is formed for the benefit of the community in Cottington Close Estate, London SE11 which shall be called "the Area". Its objects shall be to carry on for the benefit of the community:
- A2.1 business of providing, maintaining, and managing housing and associated amenities and any services that contribute to wider regeneration including the creation of employment, the advancement of education and training, relief of poverty, the provision of public amenities and recreational facilities, and the promotion of public safety and the prevention of crime within the Area of benefit;
- A2.2 In carrying out these objects the Society shall have regard to the environmental impact of its activities and services with the aim of reducing the Society's carbon footprint.
- A2.3 In carrying out these objects the Society shall promote equality of opportunity and avoid discrimination against any person and shall comply with all relevant legislation.

Non-profit

- A3 The society shall not trade for profit.
- A4 Nothing shall be paid or transferred by way of profit to shareholders of the Society.

Society Address

- A5 The registered Office of the Society shall be 1 Opal Street, Kennington London SE11 4HZ

PART B POWERS OF SOCIETY, BOARD, AND SHAREHOLDERS

Powers

- B1 The society shall have power to do anything that a natural or corporate person can lawfully do which is necessary or expedient to achieve its objects, provided that the Society shall not trade for profit.
- B2 The society shall not have power to receive money on deposit in any way which would require authorisation under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or any other authority required by statute unless it has such authorisation.

Powers of the Board

- B3 The business of the Society shall be directed by the Board.
- B4 Apart from those powers which must be exercised in general meeting:
B4.1 by statute; or
B4.2 under these rules
all the powers of the Society may be exercised by the Board for and in the name of the Society.
- B5 The Board shall have power to delegate, in writing, the exercise of any of its powers to committees and to employees of the Society (subject to rule D1) on such terms as it determines. Such delegation may include any of the powers and discretions of the Board. The Board shall, in all things, act for and in the name of the Society.

Limited powers of shareholders in general meeting

- B6 The society in general meeting can only exercise the powers of the Society expressly reserved to it by these rules or by statute.

General

- B7 The certificate of an officer of the Society that a power has been properly exercised shall be conclusive as between the Society and any third party acting in good faith.
- B8 A person acting in good faith who has not been informed of any regulations shall not be obliged to see or enquire whether the Board's powers are restricted by such regulations.

PART C SHAREHOLDERS AND GENERAL MEETINGS

Obligations of shareholders (members)

- C1 Shares of the nominal value of one pound each shall be issued to persons upon admission to membership of the Society. The shares shall be neither withdrawable nor transferable, shall carry no right to interest, dividend nor bonus, and shall be forfeited and cancelled on cessation of membership from whatever cause, and the amount paid-up thereon shall become the property of the Society. A member shall hold one share only in the Society.
- C2 All members agree to be bound by the obligations on them as set out in these rules. When acting as shareholders they shall act at all times in the interests of the Society and, for the benefit of the community, as guardians of the objects of the Society.

Nature of shares

- C3 The Society's share capital shall be raised by the issue of shares. Each share has the nominal value of one pound which shall carry no right to interest, dividend or bonus.
- C4 Only shares held by the nominee of an unincorporated body (alone or jointly with other nominees) can be transferred and only to a new nominee (alone or jointly with other nominees).
- C5 When a shareholder ceases to be a shareholder or is expelled from the Society, his or her share shall be cancelled. The amount paid up shall become the property of the Society.

Nature of shareholders

- C6 A shareholder of the Society is a person or body whose name and address is entered in the register of shareholders.
- C7 The following cannot be shareholders:
- C7.1 a person under the age of 18 years;
- C7.2 a person who has been expelled as a shareholder, unless authorised by special resolution at a general meeting;
- C7.3 an employee of the Society.
- C8 A shareholder can be the nominee of an unincorporated body. In such cases the register shall contain the name and address of the shareholder, and shall designate the shareholder as the nominee of a named unincorporated body. The address of the unincorporated body shall also be entered in the register if it differs from the address of the shareholder nominee.
- C9 A corporate body can be a shareholder. It can appoint an individual to exercise its rights at general meetings. Any such appointment shall be in writing, and given to the secretary.
- C10 No shareholder shall hold more than one share and each share shall carry only one vote.
- C11 A share cannot be held jointly unless by nominees of an unincorporated body.

Admission of shareholders

- C12 The first members of the Society shall be the signatories to the application for registration. Thereafter the Society:
- C13 Shall admit to membership any lawful resident or leaseholder who owns a property on Cottington Close estate aged eighteen years or over who agrees to be bound by the provision of these rules;
- C14 Pay the sum of one pound (which shall be returned to them if the application is not approved);
- C15 May at the Board's discretion admit to membership any society, company, firm or Local Authority or an individual nominated as the representative of any unincorporated association which is considered able to make a contribution to the activities of the Society.
- C15.1 A corporate body which is a member of the Society shall appoint a representative who shall during the continuance of her/his appointment be entitled to exercise at general meetings of the Society all such rights and powers as the corporate body would be able to exercise if it were an individual person.
- C15.2 Written notification of an organisation's choice of representative shall be sent to the secretary of the Society.
- C16 Will publish policies and admit members in accordance with those policies as long as the majority of members are tenant members.

Ending of shareholding

- C17 A shareholder shall cease to be a shareholder if:
- C17.1 they die; or
- C17.2 in the opinion of the Board they cease to qualify for membership under rule C13
- C17.3 they are expelled under rule C18; or
- C17.4 they withdraw from the Society in writing to the secretary; or
- C17.5 in the case of a body corporate it ceases to be a body corporate; or
- C17.6 in the case of the nominee of an unincorporated body, they transfer their share to another nominee of that body; or
- C17.7 in the case of the nominee of an unincorporated body the body is wound up

Expulsion of Shareholders

- C18 A shareholder may only be expelled by a special resolution at a special general meeting called by the Board.
- C18.1 The Board must give the shareholder at least one month's notice in writing of the general meeting. The notice to the shareholders must set out the particulars of the complaint of conduct detrimental to the Society, and must request the shareholder to attend the meeting to answer the complaint.
- C18.2 At the general meeting called for this purpose the shareholders shall consider the evidence presented by the Board and by the shareholder (if any). The meeting may take place even if the shareholder does not attend.

- C18.3 If the resolution to expel the shareholder is passed in accordance with this rule, the shareholder shall immediately cease to be a shareholder.
- C18.4 No member expelled from membership shall be re-admitted within two years. A member may only be readmitted by a resolution carried by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members voting at any General Meeting of which due notice has been given.

Annual general meeting

- C19 The society shall hold a general meeting called the annual general meeting within six calendar months after the close of each of its financial years.
- C20 The functions of the annual general meeting shall be:
- C20.1 to receive the annual report which shall contain:
- the revenue accounts and balance sheets for the last accounting period
 - the auditor's report on those accounts and balance sheets
 - the Board's report on the affairs of the Society
 - a statement of the skills, qualities and experience required by the Board amongst its members;
- C20.2 subject to rules F3 and F4, to appoint the auditor (if one is required by law);
- C20.3 to elect Board members;
- C20.4 to transact any other general business of the Society set out in the notice convening the meeting including any business that requires a special resolution.

Special general meetings

- C21 All general meetings, where a decision is required other than annual general meetings shall be special general meetings and shall be convened either:
- C21.1 upon an order of the Board; or
- C21.2 upon a written requisition signed by one-tenth of the shareholders or twenty five shareholders whichever is the lesser stating the business for which the meeting is to be convened;
- C21.3 if within twenty-one days after delivery of a requisition to the secretary a meeting is not convened, the members who have signed the requisition may convene a meeting. A quorum shall be present as set out in rule C.25.
- C22 A special general meeting shall not transact any business that is not set out in the notice convening the meeting.

Calling a general meeting

- C23 All general meetings shall be convened by at least fourteen clear days' written notice posted or delivered to every member at the address given in the share register or by notice given by email or electronic communications. The notice shall state whether the meeting is an annual or special general meeting, the time, date and place of the meeting, and the business for which it is convened.
- C24 A notice sent by post to a shareholder's registered address shall be deemed to have been duly served forty-eight hours after its posting. The accidental omission to send any notice to or the non-receipt of a notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.

Proceedings at general meetings

- C25 Before any general meeting can start its business there must be a quorum present. A quorum is one-tenth of all shareholders or twenty five shareholders, whichever is the lesser, subject to an absolute minimum of six.
- C26 A meeting held as a result of a shareholders' requisition will be dissolved if too few shareholders are present half an hour after the meeting should begin.
- C27 All other general meetings, where a decision is required, with too few shareholders will be adjourned until a day not more than twenty-eight days after the date set for the original meeting, and notice shall be given to all members of the adjourned meeting as of the original meeting. If at such an adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time set for the meeting, then the members present shall constitute a quorum.
- C28 The Chair of the Society shall preside at every general meeting. In the event of her/his absence or unwillingness to act, the Vice-Chair shall preside and, in the event of her/his absence or unwillingness to act, the members present shall -agree who will be the Chair of the meeting. The Chair can:
- C28.1 take the business of the meeting in any order that the Chair may decide; and
- C28.2 with the consent of the majority of members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Where a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the original meeting, otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any notice of any adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- C29 At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a secret ballot is demanded beforehand by at least five members present or the Chair decides a secret ballot should be held. Unless a secret ballot be so demanded, a declaration by the Chair that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Society shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportions of the votes recorded in favour or against such resolutions.
- C29.1 If a secret ballot is duly demanded it shall be taken in such a manner as the Chair directs, and the result of the ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the ballot was demanded.
- C29.2 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a ballot, the Chair shall have a second or casting vote.

Proxies

- C30 A proxy can be appointed by delivering a written appointment to the registered office at least five days before the date of the meeting at which the proxy is authorised to vote. It must be signed by the shareholder or a duly authorised attorney. Any proxy form delivered late shall be invalid. Any question as to the validity of a proxy shall be determined by the Chair of the meeting whose decision shall be final. A proxy need not be a shareholder of the Society. A person, other than the Chair, acting as proxy shall only act as proxy for one shareholder.

Voting

- C31 Subject to the provisions of these rules or of any statute, a resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall, except where a ballot is demanded or directed, be decided upon a show of hands.
- C32 On a show of hands every shareholder present in person or by proxy and on a ballot every shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. In the case of an equality of votes the Chair of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote
- C33 A declaration by the Chair that a resolution on a show of hands has been carried or lost, unanimously or by a particular majority, is conclusive. An entry made to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Society shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.
- C34 Any question as to the acceptability of any vote whether tendered personally or by proxy shall be determined by the Chair of the meeting whose decision shall be final.
- C35 A ballot on a resolution may be demanded by any five shareholders at a meeting (in person or by proxy) or directed by the Chair (and such demand or direction may be withdrawn
- C36 A ballot shall be taken at the meeting at such time and in such manner as the Chair shall direct. The result of such a ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Society in general meeting.

PART D THE BOARD

Functions

- D1 The Society shall have a Board (in these rules referred to as “the Board”) which shall direct the affairs of the Society in accordance with its objects and rules and ensure that its functions are properly performed. Amongst its functions shall be to:
- D1.1 define and ensure compliance with the values and objectives of the Society and ensure these are set out in each annual report;
 - D1.2 establish policies and plans to achieve those objectives;
 - D1.3 approve each year’s accounts prior to publication and approve each year’s budget;
 - D1.4 establish and oversee a framework of delegation and systems of control;
 - D1.5 agree policies and make decisions on all matters that create significant financial risk to the Society or which affect material issues of principle;
 - D1.6 monitor the Society’s performance in relation to these plans, budget, controls and decisions;
 - D1.7 appoint (and if necessary remove) the chief officer (if any and if falling within the Society’s authority);
 - D1.8 satisfy itself that the Society’s affairs are conducted in accordance with generally accepted standards of performance and propriety;
 - D1.9 take appropriate advice.
 - D1.10 oversee the negotiation of the management agreement and allowances with the Council and oversee its operation
- And none of these functions D1.1 – D1.10 inclusive shall be delegated

Composition of the Board

- D2 Unless otherwise determined by the Society in general meeting, the Society shall have a Board comprising not more than twelve and not less than seven elected members plus persons co-opted in accordance with the provisions of these rules.
- D3 A majority of Board members shall always be tenants residing in ‘the Area’ and of households under the management of the tenant management organisation. The Board will aim to reflect the tenure composition in ‘the Area’.
- D4 In every notice for an annual general meeting the Board shall set out its requirements for the skills, qualities and experience which it needs from its members. The notice shall state the extent to which those requirements are met by those Board members continuing in office, and those retiring and intending to re-offer themselves for election.
- D5 The Board shall in its annual report set out the obligations of every Board member to the Board and to the Society. The Board shall review and may amend the obligations of Board members from time to time.
- D5.1 No Board member may act as such until they have signed and delivered to the Board a statement, confirming that they will meet their obligations to the Board and to the Society. The Board may vary the form of statement from time to time.

D5.2 Any Board member who has not signed such statement without good cause within one month of election or appointment to the Board shall immediately cease to be a Board member.

D6

The Board may at any time co-opt any person, whether or not a member of the Society, to serve on the Board in addition to the elected members. The Board may also remove any person co-opted. There are two categories of co-opted Board members

D6.1 Co-opted Board members sought to ensure the Board has appropriate skills

D6.1a The Board may at any time co-opt board members for their skills, knowledge and qualities who do not reside in the Area provided that persons so co-opted shall never exceed one third of the total Board.

D6.1b Such voting co-optees shall not be counted for purposes of calculating a quorum but shall otherwise be full members of the Board.

D6.1c Such co-opted Board members have full speaking and voting rights at meetings of the Board except they cannot vote on the election of officers nor any matter affecting the governance of the Society.

D6.1d Any person co-opted by the Board may be removed by a majority vote of the Board.

D6.2 Co-opted Board members sought to fill casual vacancies who live in the Area

D6.2a If the Board falls below the minimum number as expressed in these rules, the Board shall act to fill such vacancies or to call a general meeting of the Society, and for no other purpose.

D6.2b The Board may at any time co-opt any member to fill any casual vacancy on the Board provided that members so co-opted shall never exceed one third of the total Board. Priority for co-option shall be given to members who were nominated but not elected at the previous annual general meeting, in order of number of votes cast.

D6.2c Subject to rule D5.2, co-opted members of the Board shall serve until the annual general meeting following their co-option but shall thereafter not be eligible for further co-option. Co-opted members are eligible to stand for election to the Board on standing down.

D6.2d Any person co-opted by the Board may be removed by a majority vote of the Board.

D6.2e Such co-opted Board members have full speaking and voting rights at meetings of the Board and can vote on the election of officers and any matter affecting shareholders. These co-opted members shall be counted for purposes of calculating a quorum.

For the purposes of these rules and of the Act a co-optee is a “Board member” or “member of the Board”.

- D8 The Board may invite other persons, whether or not members of the Society, to attend any of its meetings. Such invited persons shall not have voting rights and shall only have speaking rights at the discretion of the Chair.
- D9 No one can become or remain a Board member at any time if:
- D9.1 they resign their office in writing to the Society; or
 - D9.2 they are disqualified from acting as a director of a company for any reason; or
 - D9.3 they have been convicted of an indictable offence within the last five years; or
 - D9.4 being a local authority secure or introductory tenant in the area of benefit, is more than 8 weeks rent in arrears, unless in the opinion of the Chief Officer having scrutinised supporting evidence, such arrears are caused by circumstances beyond the tenants control.; or
 - D9.5 being a leaseholder in the area of benefit, is more than two months in arrears or two agreed instalments unless in the opinion of the Chief Officer having scrutinised supporting evidence, such arrears are caused by circumstances beyond the leaseholders control;
 - D9.6 they are not a shareholder in the case of elected members; or
 - D9.7 they have absented themselves from three consecutive meetings of the Board without special leave of absence; or
 - D9.8 being an elected member of the Board, ceases to be a member of the Society, or is replaced as the representative of an organisation which is a member of the Society, or is an individual nominated as the representative of an unincorporated association which ceases to be a member; or
 - D9.9 becomes bankrupt or goes into administration.
 - D9.10 being a Board member they have been removed by the Board in accordance with rule D10. They shall not stand for election to the Board and shall not be co-opted onto the Board for a period of three years from the date of his/her removal.
- D10 A Board member may be removed from the Board:
- D10.1 by a two third majority vote of the members at a General Meeting of the Society, the notices of which specified that the question of such removal was to be raised; or
 - D10.2 by a resolution passed by three quarters of the Board provided the following conditions are satisfied:
 - at least fourteen days' notice of the proposed resolution has been given to all Board members; and
 - the notice sets out in writing the alleged breach(es) of the member's obligations in accordance with rule C2; and
 - the Board is satisfied that the allegation(s) is or are true.

Election to the Board

- D11 The initial Board of the Society from incorporation until the first annual general meeting shall be appointed by the founder members.
- D12 D12.1 At every annual general meeting not less than one third of the elected Board members shall retire from office.

- D12.2 Board members forming the retiring third shall be those who have been longest in office since they were last elected or re-elected to the Board. If the choice is between people who became Board members on the same day those to retire shall be chosen by lot if not agreed.
- D12.3 Anybody appointed to fill a casual vacancy under rule D6 during the year and who retires for that reason shall not count towards the one third to retire.
- D13 If at an annual general meeting, the candidates for election as Board members do not exceed the number of vacancies on the Board the Chair shall declare those candidates to have been duly elected. If the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies the meeting shall elect the Board members by ballot in such a manner as the Chair directs.
- D14 Nominations for election to the Board shall be invited from all members of the Society by writing to them at the address recorded in the Register of Members not less than twenty-one days before the date set for the annual general meeting. If members so decide and provide an email address, nominations may be invited by email although signed paper copies of the completed nomination form must be returned as stated in rule D16.
- D15 Completed nomination forms must be received at the Registered Office of the Society not less than seven days before the date set for the annual general meeting. Nomination forms must include: the name and address of the person being nominated; a signed statement by the person nominated of her/his willingness to stand for election; and the name, address and signature of the member making the nomination. Nominations forms shall also include a statement by the person nominated of her/his experience, knowledge and skills that are relevant to the work of the Board.
- D16 In addition Board members forming the retiring third as set out in Rule D12.2, who wish to stand for election must be nominated in writing by another shareholder.
- D17 The election shall be conducted by secret ballot in such manner, as the Board shall direct, provided that all members of the Society are given clear instructions regarding how they may participate in the election.
- D18 Only members of the Society or representatives of organisations which are members may stand for election to the Board or may nominate persons to stand for election to the Board.
- D19 A general meeting of the Society may designate some of the available places on the Board as reserved for members of underrepresented groups within the area of benefit of the society, with a view to ensuring that the Board fairly represents all groups within the community it serves to fulfil its objects. Members so elected must be aware that they must act in the best interest of the Society and not their interest group. In such an event, while nominations for available places shall be sought on a special interest basis, all members of the Society present at the annual general meeting shall be entitled to vote in respect of all available places on the Board.

Meetings of the Board

- D20 The activities of the Society shall be managed by the Board who may pay all expenses of the formation of the Society as they think fit.
- D21 No regulation made by the Society in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid had the regulation not been made.

- D22 The Board may delegate any of its functions to sub-committees made up of members of the Board and such other persons as it sees fit provided that no more than two members of any sub-committee may be persons other than elected members of the Board. Any sub-committee so formed shall in the exercise of its powers conform with any regulations imposed upon it by the Board.
- D23 All cheques, promissory notes, online banking payments, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts or monies paid to the Society shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed in such manner as the Board shall from time to time by resolution determine.
- D24 Members of the Board must meet together for the dispatch of business at least six times a year, and may adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. A Board member may and the secretary shall at the request of a Board member summon a meeting of the Board at any reasonable time provided that every member of the Board shall receive at least seven clear days' notice of any such meeting. In exceptional circumstances and as determined by the Chair, an emergency meeting of the Board may be summoned on shorter notice provided every member of the Board has been duly notified.
- D25 The quorum necessary for the transaction of business at a Board Meeting shall be six or half of the elected members of the Board whichever is the lesser.
- D26 Questions arising at Board meetings shall be decided by a majority of votes of those present. In the case of an equality of votes the Chair shall have a second and casting vote.
- D27 A resolution in writing signed by all members for the time being entitled to vote at meetings of the Board shall be valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a meeting duly convened and held and may consist of several identical documents each signed by one or more members.

Board members' interests

- D28 No Board member, co-optee or member of a committee shall have any financial or material interest in any contract or other transaction with the Society, unless such interest:
- a. is expressly permitted by these rules; or
 - b. would not be in breach of, and would not be inconsistent with, any code of conduct and/or governance policy adopted by the Board.
- D29 The society shall not pay or grant any benefit to anyone who is a Board member or a co-optee or a member of a committee, unless it is expressly permitted by these rules.
- D30 Any Board member, co-optee or member of a committee, having an interest in any arrangement between the Society and someone else shall disclose their interest, before the matter is discussed by the Board or any committee. Such disclosure must comply with any code of conduct and/or governance adopted by the board from time to time. Unless it is expressly permitted by these rules they shall not remain present unless requested to do so by the Board or committee, and they shall not have any vote on the matter in question. Any decision of the Board or of a committee shall not be invalid because of the subsequent discovery of an interest which should have been declared.
- D31 Every Board member, co-optee and member of a committee shall ensure that the secretary at all times has a list of all other bodies in which they have an interest as:

- D31.1 a director or officer; or
- D31.2 as a member of a firm; or
- D31.3 as an official or elected member of any statutory body; or
- D31.4 as the owner or controller of more than 2% of a company the shares in which are publicly quoted or more than 10% of any other company; or
- D31.5 any other significant or material interest.
- D32 If requested by a majority of the Board or members of a committee at a meeting convened specially for the purpose, a Board member, co-optee or member of a committee who fails to disclose an interest as required by these rules and/or who fails to remove themselves from the decision making process shall vacate their office either permanently or for a period of time to be determined by the Board.
- D33 Notwithstanding rule D29, the Society may:
- a. pay properly authorised expenses to Board members, co-optees and members of committees when actually incurred on the Society's business;
 - b. pay insurance premiums in respect of insurance taken out to insure board members and employees;
 - c. pay recompense for loss of earnings to Board members, co-optees and members of committees where evidenced to the satisfaction of the Chief Officer in accordance with the Members Expenses policy; and
 - d. grant benefits to Board members, co-optees and members of committees; provided that any such payment or benefit is in accordance with any code of conduct and/or governance adopted by the Board from time to time.
- D34 A Board member, co-optee or member of a committee shall not have an interest for the purpose of rule D28 as a Board member, director, or officer of any other body whose accounts are or ought to be consolidated with the Society's accounts.
- D35 Board members, co-optees or members of committees who are tenants of the Society shall not have an interest for the purpose of rule D28 in any decision affecting all or a substantial group of tenants.
- D36 The grant of a tenancy by the Society at the direction of another body to a Board member, co-optee or member of a committee is not the grant of a benefit for the purpose of rule D29.

Management and delegation

- D37 The Board may delegate any of its powers under written terms of reference to committees or to employees (subject to rule D1). Those powers shall be exercised in accordance with any written instructions given by the Board.
- D38 All acts and proceedings of any committee shall be reported to the Board.
- D39 No committee can incur expenditure on behalf of the Society unless at least one Board member or co-optee of the Board on the committee has voted in favour of the resolution and the Board has previously approved a budget for the relevant expenditure.

Miscellaneous provisions

- D40 All decisions taken at a Board or any committee meeting in good faith shall be valid even if it is discovered subsequently that there was a defect in the calling of the meeting, or the appointment of the members at a meeting, or
- D41 Meetings of the Board can take place in any manner that permits those attending to hear and comment on the proceedings.
- D42 A Board member acting in good faith shall not be liable to the Society for any loss.

PART E CHAIR, CHIEF OFFICER, SECRETARY, TREASURER & OTHER OFFICERS

The Chair

- E1 The society shall have a Chair, who shall also chair Board meetings, and shall be elected by the Board.
- E2 The Chair on election shall hold office until the commencement of the first Board meeting after the next annual general meeting of the Society (or until the Chair resigns as Chair). The first item of business for any Board meeting when there is no Chair or the Chair is not present shall be to elect the Chair. The Chair shall at all times be a shareholder and a Board member and cannot be an employee.
- E3 The Chair of the Society may be removed at a Board meeting called for the purpose provided the resolution is passed by at least two thirds of the members of the Board at the meeting.

The Chair's responsibilities

- E4 The Chair shall seek to ensure that:
- E4.1 the Board's business and the Society's general meetings are conducted efficiently;
 - E4.2 all Board members are given the opportunity to express their views;
 - E4.3 a constructive working relationship is established with the chief officer including management and support.
 - E4.4 the Board delegates sufficient authority to its committees, the Chair, the chief officer (if any), and others to enable the business of the Society to be carried on effectively between Board meetings;
 - E4.5 the Board receives professional advice when it is needed;
 - E4.6 the Society is represented as required; and
 - E4.7 the Society's affairs are conducted in accordance with generally accepted codes of performance and propriety.
- E5 The Board shall ensure that there is a written statement of the Chair's responsibilities which shall be agreed with the Board, and reviewed from time to time.

The Chief Officer

- E6 The society may have a chief officer appointed by the Board. The Chief Officer shall be appointed on a written contract of employment, which shall include a clear statement of the duties of the Chief Officer.

The Secretary

- E7 The society shall have a secretary who shall be appointed by the Board. The secretary shall in particular:
- E7.1 summon and attend all meetings of the Society and the Board and keep the minutes of those meetings; and

 - E8.2 oversee the finances of the Society including reports setting out expenditure against budget and ensure that monthly bank reconciliations are carried out;
 - E8.3 act as a key point of contact for both internal and external auditors and be available for consultation with them;
 - E8.4 oversee the audit for the Society.

Other officers

- E9 The Board may designate as officers such other executives as it from time to time decides.

Miscellaneous

- E10 Every officer or employee shall be indemnified by the Society for any amount reasonably incurred in the discharge of his or her duty.
- E11 Except for the consequences of their own dishonesty or gross negligence no officer or employee shall be liable for any losses suffered by the Society.

PART F FINANCIAL CONTROL AND AUDIT

Auditor

- F1 The society if required by law to do so shall appoint an auditor to act in each financial year. They must be qualified as provided by Section 91 of the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014
- F2 The following cannot act as auditor:
- F2.1 an officer or employee of the Society;
- F2.2 a person employed by or employer of, or the partner of, an officer or employee of the Society.
- F2.3 a person prohibited by section 1214 of the Companies Act 2006 (independence requirement) from acting as statutory auditor of a company that is a subsidiary of the society.
- F3 The Society's auditor may be appointed by the board or by a resolution of shareholders.
- F4 Where an auditor is appointed to audit the accounts for the preceding year, they shall be re-appointed to audit the current years as well unless:
- a general meeting has appointed someone else to act or has resolved that the auditor cannot act; or
 - the auditor does not want to act and has told the Society so in writing; or
 - the person is not qualified or falls within rule F2 (above); or
 - the auditor has become incapable of acting; or
 - notice to appoint another auditor has been given.
- F5 No less than twenty-eight days' notice shall be given for a resolution to appoint another person as auditor, or to forbid a retiring auditor being re-appointed;
- F5.1 the Society shall send a copy of the resolution to the retiring auditor and also give notice to its shareholders at the same time and in the same manner, if possible;
- F5.2 if not, the Society shall give notice by advertising in a local newspaper at least 14 days before the proposed meeting. The retiring auditor can make representations to the Society which must be notified to its shareholders under Section 95 of the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014.

Auditor's duties

- F6 The findings of the auditor shall be reported to the Society, in accordance with Section 87 of the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014.
- F7 The Board shall produce the revenue account and balance sheet audited by the auditor, if required, and the auditor's report, if required, at each annual general meeting. The Board shall also produce its report on the affairs of the Society which shall be signed by the person chairing the meeting which adopts the report.

Accounting requirements

- F8 The end of the accounting year must be a date allowed by the Act.

- F9 The Society shall keep proper books of account detailing its transactions, its assets and its liabilities, in accordance with Section 76 of the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014.
- F10 The Society shall establish and maintain satisfactory systems of control of its books of account, its cash and all its receipts and payments.

Annual returns and balance sheets

- F11 Every year, within the time specified by legislation, the secretary shall send the Society's annual return to the Financial Conduct Authority. The return shall be up-to-date to the time specified in the Act, or such other date allowed by the Financial Conduct Authority. The annual return shall be accompanied by the auditor's reports, if required, for the period of the return and the accounts and balance sheets to which it refers.

Borrowing

- F12 The society may receive from any person donations towards its work.
- F13 The total borrowings of the Society at any time shall not exceed £1 million (one million pounds) or such a larger sum as the Society determines from time to time in general meeting.
- F14 The rate of interest payable at the time terms of borrowing are agreed on any money borrowed, shall not exceed the rate of interest which, in the opinion of the Board, is reasonable having regard to the terms of the loan. The Board may delegate the determination of the said interest rate within specified limits to an officer, Board member or a committee.
- F15 In respect of any proposed borrowing, for the purposes of rule F13:
- F15.1 the amount remaining undischarged of any deferred interest or index-linked monies previously borrowed by the Society or on any deep discounted security shall be deemed to be the amount required to repay such borrowing in full if such pre-existing borrowing became repayable in full at the time of the proposed borrowing; and
- F15.2 For the purposes of rule F13 in respect of any proposed borrowing intended to be on index-linked or on any deep discounted security the amount of borrowing shall be deemed to be the proceeds of such proposed borrowing receivable by the Society at the time of the proposed borrowing.

Investment

- F16 The funds of the Society may be invested by the Board in such manner as it determines.

Application of surpluses

- F17 Any surplus shall be applied in pursuance of the Society's objects.
